Here's a summary of North Dakota's major wildlife refuges:

Arrowwood NWR
Location: On US 83, go north to Edmore and continue another 5 miles north, go east on Stutsman County Road 44 about five miles.
Size: 15,964 acres
Year established: Sept. 4, 1935
Phone: 701-285-3341

Audubon NWR
Location: On US 83, go two miles north of Gackle, then east 70 miles.
Size: 14,738 acres
Year established: 1966
Phone: 701-442-5474

Chase Lake NWR
Location: 10 miles northwest of Mott (look for the sign on Stutsman County Road 68); headquarters is 3 miles east of Woodworth.
Size: 4,385 acres
Year established: 1968 (second oldest refuge in state)
Phone: 701-752-4216

Des Lacs NWR
Location: 5 miles west of Kenmare, off Ward County Road 1
Size: 19,500 acres, stretching from Canada-US border to 6 miles south of Kenmare

J. Clark Salyer NWR
Location: 2 miles north of Upham on ND 14.
Size: 58,700 acres; the largest refuge in North Dakota
Year established: 1935
Phone: 701-769-2548

Tewaukon NWR
Location: 5 miles south of Carryup on Sargent County Road 12.
Size: 8,363 acres
Year established: 1934
Phone: 701-724-3926

Upper Souris NWR
Location: 18 miles north of Minot on US 83 and 12 miles west on Ward County Road 6, or 6 miles north of Fosheim.
Size: 39,092 acres
Year established: 1935
Phone: 701-456-5897

Sull's Hill National Game Preserve
Location: 13 miles south of Devils Lake on ND 57, then south on BIA Road 6
Size: 1,874 acres
Year established: 1921 (1954 as a National Park)
Phone: 701-769-4272

Kelli's Slough National Wildlife Refuge
Location: 6 miles west and north of Grand Forks; headquarters is in Devils Lake.
Size: 3,534 acres including adjacent and nearby Waterfowl Production Area
Year established: 1936
Phone: 701-662-6611

Reprinted with permission.